Adria Security Summit gathers all participants within the supply chain, from manufacturers to end users, involved in video surveillance, electronic and mechanical access control, intrusion detection, fire and safety, perimeter protection, manned guarding, security management, PA/VA systems, smart homes and building automation, cyber security, and ICT.

The event's organizer is a&s Adria, a professional magazine for providing total security solutions. It is a monthly circulating publication and a licensed representative of Messe Frankfurt New Era Business Media for the Adriatic region: Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, Kosovo, Montenegro, North Macedonia, Slovenia, and Serbia.

Since 2017, Messe Frankfurt has partnered with our event, which is now known as Adria Security Summit powered by Intersec. Messe Frankfurt is Europe's largest trade fair, congress and event organizer. Its leading security trade show is Intersec Dubai with close to 1,300 exhibitors.

“Technology is something we cannot live without, it is here to help us as an imperative in today’s life. The Adria Security Summit is the ideal place where users can get acquainted with professional solutions, as well as legal regulations for the use of security technologies. With long-term thinking, it’s possible to choose the right brand that won’t be an expense but an investment, because when it comes to security, it is priceless.”

“This is one of the most important security events in the region, and it is crucial to ensure its continuity. It provides an excellent opportunity for service providers to present innovative solutions to both investors and end users. Also, within the industry, we have the chance to develop connections that can contribute to a higher level of security for all of us.”

Ines Cero, Director, Alarm automatika
